

NIGERIA ASSOCIATION OF PHYSIOTHERAPY STUDENTS, LAGOS
STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF MEDICINE
(NAPS-LASUCOM)

2025

TABLE OF CONTENTS...

ARTICLES

ARTICLE 1:STRUCTURE OF THE ASSOCIATION

- Name and Address
- Symbol and Motto

ARTICLE 2:AIMS.

ARTICLE 3: MEMBERSHIP

- Ordinary Membership
- Honorary Membership
- Life Membership

- Termination of Membership

ARTICLE 4:ADVISORY COUNCIL.

- Advisers
- Patrons/Matron
- Grand Patrons/Matron
- Life Patrons/Matron
- Obligations

ARTICLE 5:ELECTION.

- Electoral Commision
- Electoral law
- Bye Election
- Candidature

ARTICLE 6:SENATE.

- Status
- Functions
- Discipline of the Executive council
- Resignation of Executive members
- Handing Over
- The Physiotherapy Editorial Board
- The Academic Committee

ARTICLE 8 : PHYSIOTHERAPY PRESS.

- Powers and function
- Membership
- The editorial board
- The press year

ARTICLE 9: COMMITTEES AND AWARDS.

- Names of committees
- Composition and functions
- Meetings
- Awards

ARTICLE 10: CONGRESS MEETINGS

- Ordinary congress meetings
- Emergency congress meetings
- Voting meetings

ARTICLE 11 : FINANCE.

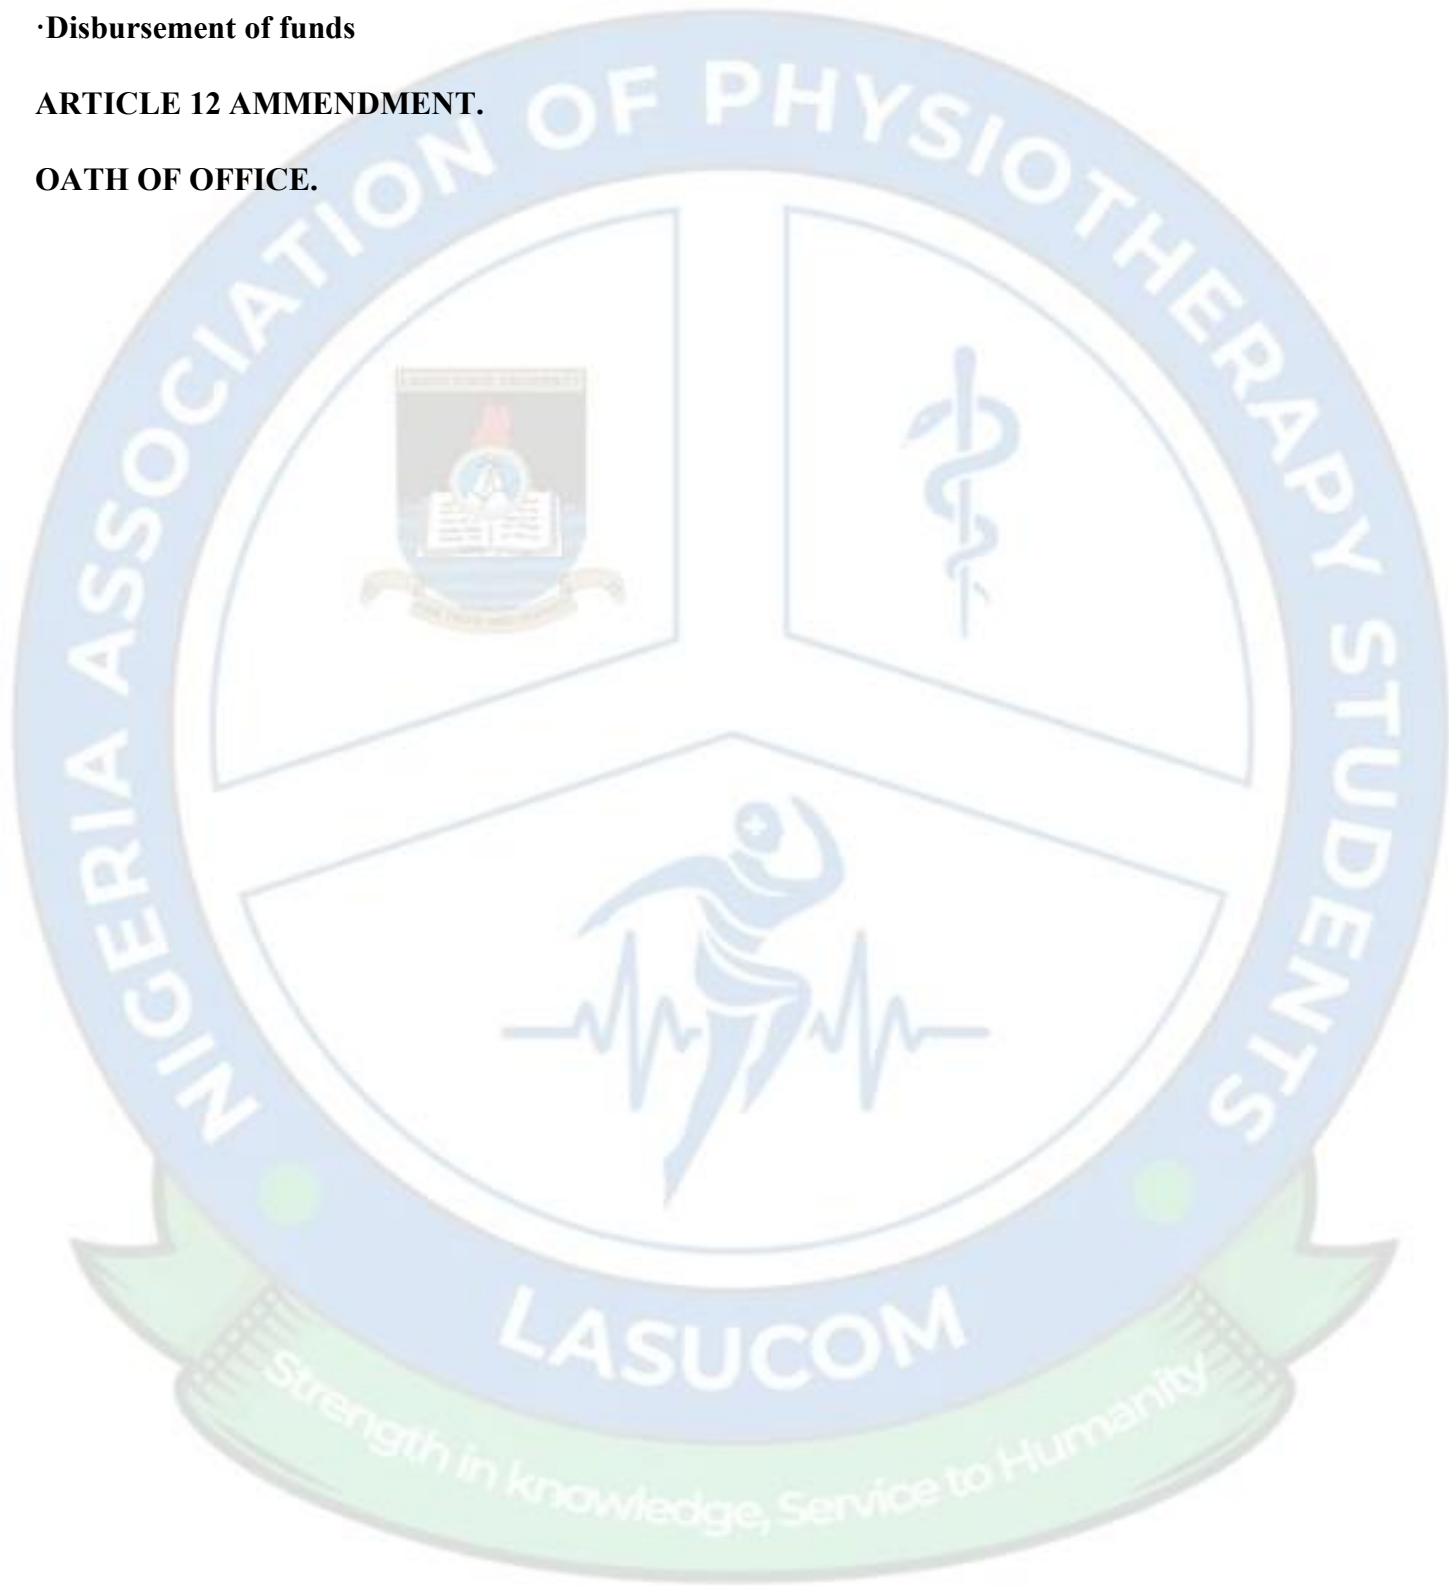

- Sources of funds generation
- Dues and extra dues
- Banker

·Signatories

·Disbursement of funds

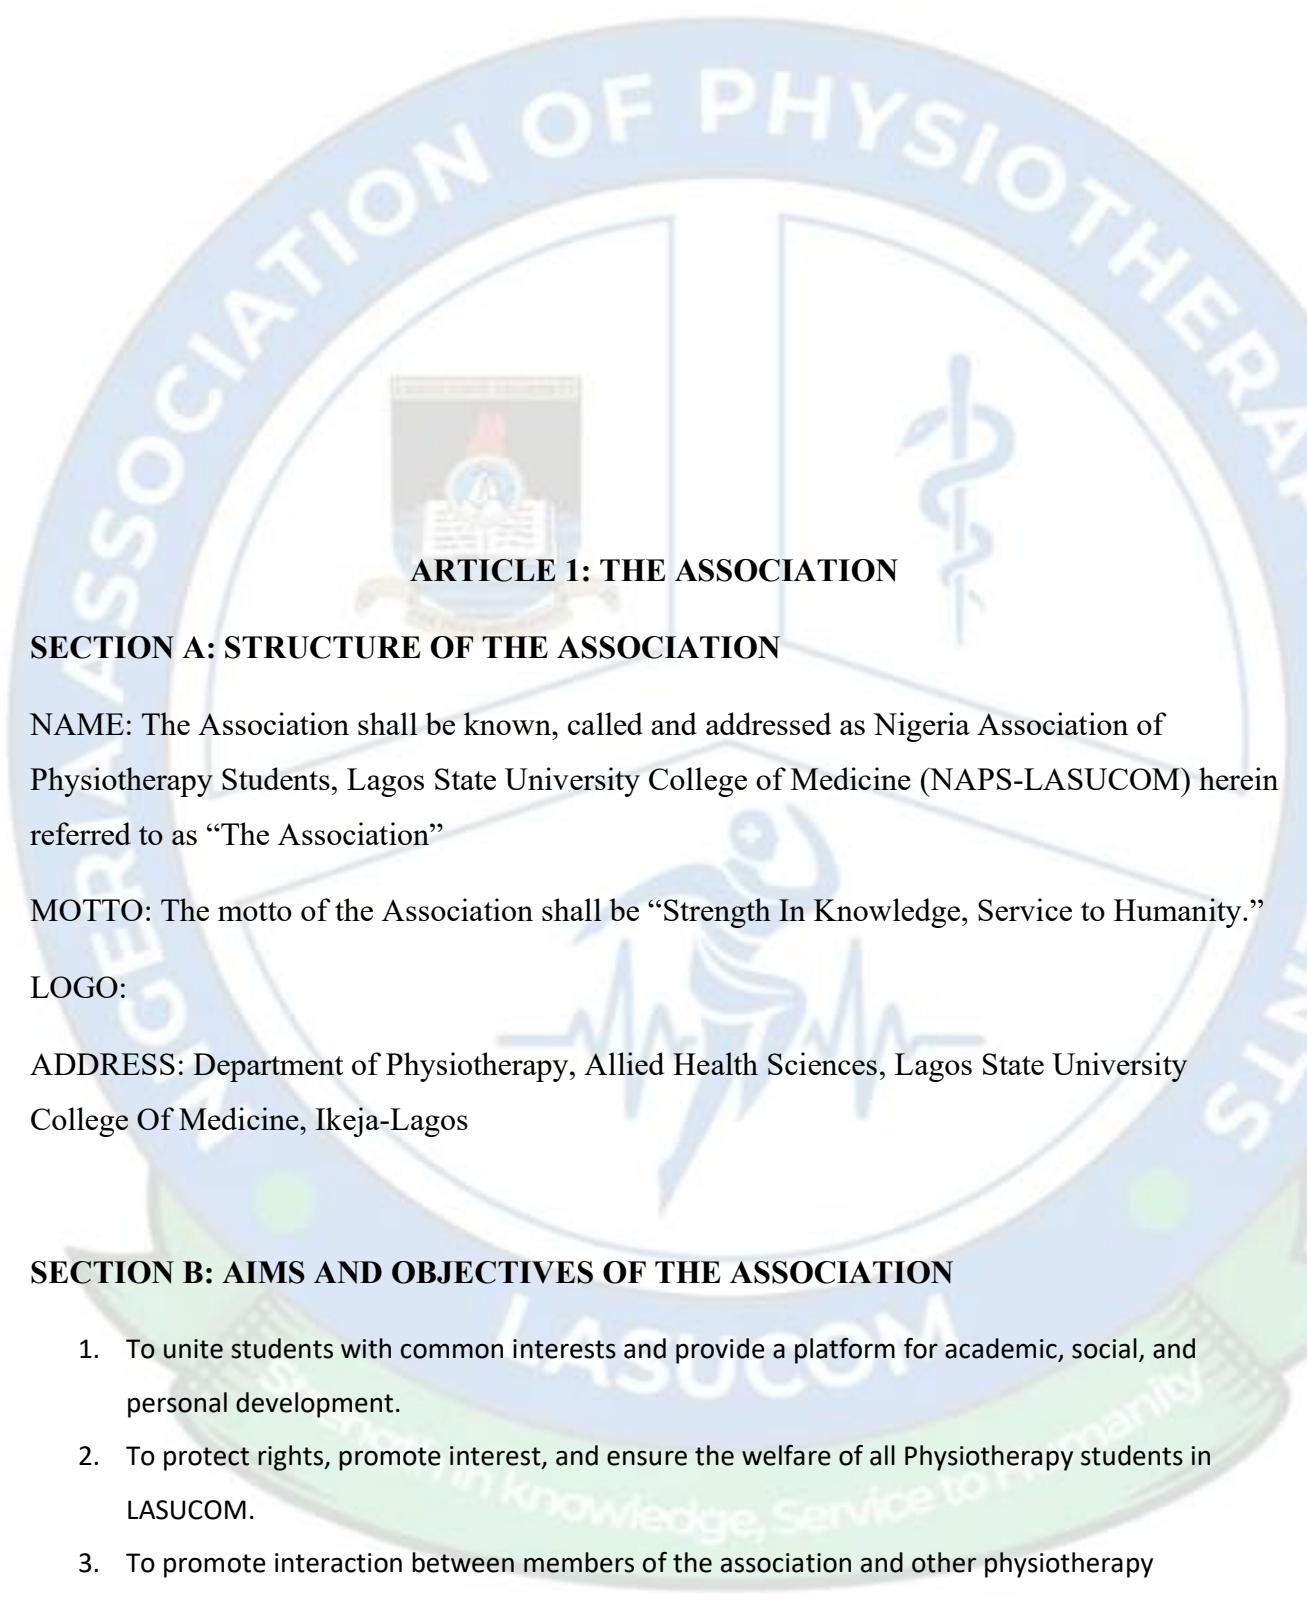

ARTICLE 12 AMMENDMENT.

OATH OF OFFICE.

PREAMBLE

We, the members of Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College of Medicine (NAPS-LASUCOM), having firmly and solemnly resolved to associate in unity and harmony as one student body dedicated to the study of Physiotherapy in Nigeria, achieving academic excellence, intra and interrelations and solidarity with other departments, faculties, associations and other academic bodies whilst committed to the noble course of NAPS do hereby enact and give ourselves this Constitution, for the purpose of promoting good governance, equity, ethics, justice, fair hearing and consolidating the unity of our members. This Constitution shall guide and direct the conduct of members and the affairs of the Association.

ARTICLE 1: THE ASSOCIATION

SECTION A: STRUCTURE OF THE ASSOCIATION

NAME: The Association shall be known, called and addressed as Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College of Medicine (NAPS-LASUCOM) herein referred to as “The Association”

MOTTO: The motto of the Association shall be “Strength In Knowledge, Service to Humanity.”

LOGO:

ADDRESS: Department of Physiotherapy, Allied Health Sciences, Lagos State University College Of Medicine, Ikeja-Lagos

SECTION B: AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE ASSOCIATION

1. To unite students with common interests and provide a platform for academic, social, and personal development.
2. To protect rights, promote interest, and ensure the welfare of all Physiotherapy students in LASUCOM.
3. To promote interaction between members of the association and other physiotherapy associations throughout the world.

4. To uphold ethics, professionalism, and leadership development among members.
5. To initiate and support outreach programs that showcase the value of Physiotherapy in society, including through partnership and health programs.
6. To provide timely information and updates on developments within the field of Physiotherapy.
7. To promote public awareness on the importance of Physiotherapy and healthy living.
8. To promote student-led research, encouraging students' participation in physiotherapy research and innovation.
9. To uphold, defend, and review the constitution when necessary, and maintain the principles of the association.

So help us God, Amen!

SECTION C: WAYS OF ACHIEVING THE AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

In order to achieve other objectives stated in Section B of this constitution, the association shall carry out the following;

1. Academic, Professional, and Leadership Programs

Through the organization of lectures, seminars, workshops, tutorials, research activities, and leadership training aimed at improving academic excellence, professionalism, ethics, and innovation among members.

2. Effective Representation and Welfare Advocacy

By representing the interests of physiotherapy students before relevant authorities, protecting members' rights, promoting their welfare, and ensuring a supportive academic and social environment.

3. Collaboration, Networking, and Partnerships

Through interaction with local and international physiotherapy associations, health institutions, NGOs, and other relevant bodies to promote knowledge exchange and professional growth.

4. Community Outreach and Public Awareness

By organizing health outreaches, awareness campaigns, and community service programs that promote physiotherapy, healthy living, and service to humanity.

5. Efficient Communication and Constitutional Governance

Through timely dissemination of information, use of digital platforms, adherence to the constitution, and periodic review of policies to ensure transparency, accountability, and unity within the association.

ARTICLE 2: MEMBERSHIP

SECTION A: MEMBERSHIP OBLIGATIONS AND PRIVILEGES

➤ ORDINARY MEMBERSHIP:

This shall be an automatic conferment on any (undergraduate) student that is registered for training in the Department of Physiotherapy, Lagos State University College Of Medicine.

ORDINARY MEMBERS:

An ordinary member shall:

- Be a full financial member of the Association
- Attend meetings and participate actively in all functions of the Association
- Uphold the integrity of the Association and protect her interest
- Be fully bound by the provisions of this constitution

PRIVILEGES:

- Ordinary members shall have the privilege to:
- Vote and be voted for in any approved elections of the Association
- Be protected by the Association in matters where the NAPS-LASUCOM senate deems the intervention of the Association necessary
- Append signature to a referendum requesting extraordinary general meetings
- Wear and display official emblems of the Association
- Use the facilities provided and recognized by the Association
- Obtain on first registration a copy of the Association's constitution
- Be invited to academic and social functions of the Association.

➤ HONORARY MEMBERSHIP:

Honorary membership may be conferred on any individual or group of individuals who have shown interest in the activities of the NAPS-LASUCOM for at least 5 years and assessed fit by virtue of past contributions to the study of Physiotherapy in Lagos State University College Of Medicine or interest in activities of the Association on recommendation by the Executive Council to the NAPS-LASUCOM senate for ratification.

OBLIGATIONS:

Honorary members shall:

- Continue their active co-operation with the Association in future.
- Support the Association financially.
- Uphold the integrity of the Association and protect her interest.

PRIVILEGES:

- Honorary members shall:
- Be entitled to use facilities provided and recognized by the Association.
- Be entitled to use and display official emblems and colours of the Association.
- Have no voting right.
- Have the right to attend meetings of the Association
- Have the right to be invited to academic and social functions of the Association.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP:

Shall be conferred on past members of the Association who have distinguished themselves as ordinary members, Executive Council, Member of Adhoc committee of the Association, or those who show strong interests in the activities of the Association on recommendation of the Executive Council and approved by the NAPS-LASUCOM senate.

PRIVILEGES:

Shall be as for Honorary members.

SECTION B: TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

TERMINATION OF ORDINARY MEMBERSHIP

A student shall cease to be an ordinary member:

- On his/her graduation from the Physiotherapy Department as a licensed Physiotherapist.
- On change from the department.
- On withdrawal from the department.
- If found wanting and expelled by the Student Disciplinary Committee of Lagos State University College Of Medicine.

The NAPS-LASUCOM Senate reserves the right to suspend the membership of any member found guilty of contravening the decision of the Senate.

TERMINATION OF HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

An individual shall cease to be an honorary member of the association if he/she;

- Discontinued their active cooperation with the association for more than two years
- Involved in any action that tarnished their image and/or that of the Association
- The NAPS-LASUCOM Senate reserves the right to suspend the membership of any member found guilty of contravening the decision of the senate.

ARTICLE 3: ADVISORY COUNCIL

SECTION A

ADVISERS: The Head of Physiotherapy Department, Lagos State University College Of Medicine, Ikeja-Lagos, the staff adviser and the Chairman of the state chapter of the Nigerians Society of Physiotherapist shall be automatic advisers. Any other adviser may also be chosen by the Executive Council, subject to the approval of the NAPS-LASUCOM Senate.

PATRONS/MATRONS: The current Dean\Provost of Allied Health, Lagos State University College Of Medicine shall be automatic patron/matron of the Association and five other patriotic Nigerians from all walks of life on recommendation of the Executive Council and approved by the NAPS-LASUCOM Senate.

- A copy of the constitution should be sent to all patrons/matrons of the Association.

SECTION B

GRAND PATRON/MATRON: Shall be conferred on anybody who has served the Association actively as the patron/matron for the last five years as approved by the general congress.

SECTION C

LIFE PATRON/MATRON: Shall be conferred on anybody who has served the Association actively as the Grand patron/matron for the last five years as approved by the general congress.

SECTION D

OBLIGATIONS

- Their advice shall be needed from time to time
- They shall be informed of all important issues affecting the Association
- They shall receive the NAPS-LASUCOM Executive or accredited representatives of the Association
- They shall be expected to generously donate in cash and kind to the upkeep of the Association

ARTICLE 4: THE NAPS-LASUCOM CONGRESS

SECTION A: THE GENERAL CONGRESS AND ITS POWERS

ORDINARY CONGRESS

- The general assembly of all undergraduates students of the department shall herein be referred to as “CONGRESS”
- The general congress meeting shall hold at least once in a session.

- At least eight (8%) of the total membership of the association shall constitute a quorum at the ordinary congress provided that not more than 50% of the ordinary members present belong to the same level
- The president shall summon one ordinary congress meeting on the advice of the Speaker or Deputy Speaker or Presiding Officer or Students' Representative Council provided that such advice is given writing and with 5days notice
- The president or in his/her absence, the vice president shall be the presiding officer at such congress.
- Failure of the President to summon a congress as provided for in section 6(A4), the Speaker or Deputy Speaker or presiding Officer of the SRC shall on request of 2/3 majority members present at the ordinary sitting of the SRC or append signature to a referendum of the 1/3 ordinary members of NAPS-LASUCOM
- Voting at assembly shall be by voice votes (those in favor saying HI and those against saying NAY) or show of hands if so required by a simple majority of voters present
- At congress meetings speakers shall be recognized by the presiding officer in the following order; Point of order, Point of information, Point of correction, Point of observation.
- There should be at least 48hours notice before any congress meeting.
- The decision(s) taken at any congress meeting is/are binding

SECTION B: EMERGENCY CONGRESS

- The President shall summon emergency congress when he considers this necessary or on a written request signed by not less than 50% of ordinary members of NAPS-LASUCOM
- The President shall summon an extra-ordinary congress with a resolution of 2/3 of the members of SRC and Executive Council present at such sitting within 4-7 working days of such resolution.
- All other rules in (A) above guiding the congress shall be applicable.

SECTION C: POWER OF THE CONGRESS

- The congress shall have power to suspend for a definite period or dismiss the executive council or any elected office of the association on a motion of no confidence passed by at least $\frac{3}{4}$ majorities of the members present. Notice of such a motion shall be made in writing to the Secretary and copied to the Staff Adviser, Head of Department and Dean not less than 24 hours before the time of the meeting called to discuss it.
- The congress may debate and pass resolution if necessary on any matter which bears relevance to the progress of the association.
- The congress shall also dissolve the SRC, if it finds it wanting in its constitutional duties or in collaboration with executives conspire to defraud the association
- A bye-election shall be conducted within each constituency to present its own representatives.
- The bye-election shall be conducted by an ad-hoc electoral committee constituted in such congress not more than 3 members (having just one member from each level)
- A congress which suspend or dismiss an executive council shall at the same time set up a caretaker committee of not less than 5 members in which each class shall be represented by at least one member to run the affairs of the association during the period of suspension or until a new executive council is elected.
- Whenever an executive is dismissed, election of new executive shall be held not later than 30 days after such dismissed.

ARTICLE 5: THE NAPS-LASUCOM SENATE

SECTION A: STATUS

ESTABLISHMENT: There shall be a body known as the NAPS-LASUCOM SENATE, which shall be the representative, policy-making body of the Association. Financial members of the Association shall constitute it.

COMPOSITION: It shall consist of elected members, maximum of (10) from each level. The 100 level class shall be represented by two members; the class representative and assistant class representative of the class. Members of the NAPS-LASUCOM SENATE shall be known and addressed as SENATORS in the Association's references.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership of the NAPS-LASUCOM Senate shall be by election which will be conducted by the electoral commission. Members of the NAPS-LASUCOM Senate shall be known and addressed as Senators.

SECTION B: FUNCTIONS

The NAPS-LASUCOM SENATE shall have the following functions:

- To act for the NAPS-LASUCOM in conformity with the aims and practices of the Association concerning all matters which may arise from time to time,
- To approve the session budget and capital project(s) of the Association. The budget shall be approved within ten (10) working days of its submission failing which the Executive Council can run the Association on not more than 30% of the budget.
- To direct, if it chooses, that a referendum be conducted in order to determine any matter whatsoever
- To approve or reject the names) of students) or any members) of the public to be given award(s) the Executive Council.
- To see that no officer carry out any other duty other than those stipulated within his portfolio and in other articles of this constitution.
- To set up a disciplinary committee, which shall be made up of five (5) members of the senate, headed by the Chief Whip. In the case the Chief Whip is the one to be disciplined, the Senate President shall head the committee.
- Members shall consult students of their classes when going for a meeting and give feedback after the meeting.
- To give full report of its action to the congress at the expiration of its term of office through the Senate President or when deemed necessary.
- To conduct all bye elections within the association.

SECTION C: MEETING OF THE NAPS-LASUCOM SENATE

➤ GENERAL MEETING

- The senate shall have its first meeting latest three (3) weeks after the inauguration of new senators.
- The Senate shall meet at least Four (4) times every session before its dissolution.
- All officers of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate at its first meeting among its members. The outgoing Senate President shall preside over the election of the officers.
- Alternatively, an acting Senate President may be chosen among Members of the Senate to preside over the election. Such acting Senate president shall automatically lose his/her voting right at the election.
- Two-third of the membership of the senate shall constitute a quorum for all meetings of the Senate
- Voting shall be by showing of hands except when the members press for a division, or the Senate President considers a secret ballot necessary.
- The Senate President shall have no voting right, except when there is a tie.
- Members who are absent from three (3) meetings without prior notice shall automatically face disciplinary committee and shall be punished based on the recommendations of the disciplinary committee.

➤ SPECIAL MEETINGS

Special meetings may be summoned:

- Through a written petition of one third (1/3) of the members of the NAPS-LASUCOM Senate provided notice of such meeting has been given to the Senate President at least 48 hours before the said meeting.
- At the instance of the Senate President and/or the NAPS-LASUCOM President.

SECTION D: OFFICERS OF THE SENATE

I. The officers of the Senate shall consist of the following:

a) The Senate President

- b) The Deputy Senate President
- c) The Clerk of the Senate
- d) The Chief Whip

II. Duties of the officers

(a) The Senate President

- Shall come from the final year [Highest] class as at the time of the in-house election and he/she must have served in the Senate for at least one tenure. If none of the elected senators from the final year class as at the time of the in-house election have served in the Senate, then anyone of them can be voted as the Senate President.
- Shall preside over all meetings of the Senate and congress meetings
- Shall have power to maintain order in the Senate.
- Shall subject to the provisions in this constitution instruct the Clerk of the Senate to summon meetings of the Senate.
- Shall impartially direct the proceedings of the Senate and shall execute other functions conferred on him/her under the provisions of this constitution.
- Shall at the meeting of the Senate interpret the constitution of the Association in good faith.
- Shall be one of the official representatives of the Association's interest with the 'Institution's Authority'.
- Shall rule in matters on which the constitution is silent and his/her ruling shall only be reversed by two-thirds (2/3) majority of members present at the meeting.
- Shall supervise the election of the incoming officers.

(b) The Deputy Senate President

- Shall be a clinical student (400-600 level) as at the time of the in-house election.

- Shall assist the Senate President from time to time and shall perform all the duties of the Senate President in his/her absence

- Shall supervise casting of votes and give the result to the Senate President for announcement
- Shall organize the venue of meetings
- Shall perform all other functions duly assigned to him by the Senate President

(c) The Clerk of the Senate

- Shall be a clinical student (400-600 level) as at the time of the in-house election.
- Shall summon all Senate meetings with permission from the Senate President.
- Shall give notices of meetings at least two (2) days to the conveyance date.
- Shall take the minutes and record of the proceedings at the Senate.
- Shall read minutes of the previous sitting which shall be adopted by the house.
- Shall carry out other functions as may be assigned to him/her by the Senate President.

(d) The Chief Whip

- Shall during every meeting of the Senate, take attendance of the members present, and forward a list of absentees to the Senate President.
- Shall maintain discipline in the house.
- Shall automatically be the head of the disciplinary committee set up by the Senate President.
- Shall maintain law and order during congress meetings.

SECTION E: DISCIPLINE OF SENATORS

1. (a) The Senate shall make for herself a code of conduct guiding the Senators to be known by the name 'The 'Senate Standing Order' and shall be binding on all Senators.

(b) Any member of the Senate can be disciplined based on the provisions of The Senate Standing Order.

2. Without prejudice to the provision of item 1 above, a senator shall lose his seat if:

- He is absent from three (3) meetings to which he was formally invited, with reasons not tenable to the disciplinary committee.
- He resigns.

3.(a) Whenever allegation(s) of misconduct is leveled against any officer of the Senate, the Disciplinary Committee shall investigate such allegation(s) and submit her report within two (2) weeks.

(b) If the Senate president is under investigation, he shall step aside throughout the period of the investigation while the deputy takes over. However, in the event that both the Senate President and his deputy are being investigated; both shall step aside throughout the period of the investigation while the Senate shall elect a pre tempore Senate President.

(c) Any officer of the Senate shall be removed from office by a two-third majority vote of Senators present at a duly constituted Senate meeting if he is found guilty of any of the following:

- Embezzlement or misappropriation of funds.
- Dereliction of duty
- Constitution Breach
- Any action that a simple majority of the Senate, considers as to have undermined the integrity of the Senate.

SECTION F: TENURE AND DISSOLUTION

- The tenure shall last for one academic session
- The dissolution of the Senate shall take place prior to or on the occasion of swearing in of new members

ARTICLE 6: EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

SECTION 1: THE EXECUTIVES

The executive council shall comprise of the following offices as listed below in their hierarchy:

- The President
- The Vice President
- General Secretary
- Assistant General Secretary
- Financial Secretary
- Treasurer
- Public Relation Officer 1
- Social Director
- Sports director

➤ THE PRESIDENT

- Shall be the first member and head of Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine (NAPS-LASUCOM).
- Shall preside over the general congress as the chairman and head the executive meeting of Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, (NAPS-LASUCOM)
- Shall protect the Lagos State University College Of Medicine image of the association and the university in accordance with the provision of NAPS-LASUCOM constitution
- Shall render a report of the activities of the association under his/her leadership to the senate house
- Shall be entitled to assign duties to any officer on certain matters when the need arises.
- Shall summon all executives and congress meetings through the General Secretary.
- Shall be one of the signatories to the NAPS-LASUCOM account.
- Shall discharge all other duties that are necessary for the effective performance of his office in accordance with the provisions of the NAPS-LASUCOM constitution.

➤ VICE PRESIDENT

- Shall advice and assist the President in his duties.
- Shall deputize the president in his/her absence.
- Shall chairman the organizing committee(s) for the entire association's week.
- Shall perform such other duties as may be delegated to her by the President.
- Shall discharge all other duties that are necessary for the effective performance of her office in accordance with the provisions of constitution.

➤ GENERAL SECRETARY

- Shall be in charge of the association's secretariat.
- Shall conduct and keep proper record of all correspondence including proceedings and minutes of the executive meetings.
- Shall converse executive meeting of the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, NAPS-LASUCOM at the request of the President; such notices shall be at least 48 hours before the commencement of the meetings.
- Shall at every executive council meetings take minutes of the proceedings
- Shall convey all executives meetings and draw up all agendas for meetings of the association at the request of the president.
- Shall be responsible and accountable to the executive council's budget
- Shall make the constitution and other certified material available to all members of NAPS-LASUCOM
- Shall be in constant consultation with the public relation officers.
- Shall perform all other duties as may be assigned by the President.
- Shall discharge all other duties that are necessary for the effective performance of his/her office in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.

➤ ASSISTANT GENERAL SECRETARY

- Shall assist and deputize for the general secretary in his/her absence

- Shall be the clerk of the general congress, and shall make copies of the resolution(s) in a general congress through the PRO to all levels of the association for publication within 48 hours.
- Shall assist the vice president in addressing all academic complaints from members of the association.
- Shall provide the official email accounts for the officials of the association.
- Shall be the general secretary of the associations week, and as such may perform all other functions delegated to him or her by the vice president in the affairs of the health week.
- Shall perform all other duties as may be assigned to him/her by the President, General Secretary and other sections of the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, NAPS LASUCOM constitution.

➤ FINANCIAL SECRETARY

- Shall collect all money payable to the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine (NAPS-LASUCOM) issue receipts for and keep proper records of such money
- Shall prepare vouchers for withdrawal of the association's money, which must be approved by the President and the financial secretary
- Shall keep statutory book of account as may be directed by the auditors of the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine. (NAPS-LASUCOM)
- Shall be a signatory to the NAPS-LASUCOM bank account.
- Shall give an 'up to date' financial report to the congress at the last meeting before handing over to the incoming executives and as may be required by the executives of the NAPS-LASUCOM
- Shall keep all receipts and other financial documents and submit such for audition.
- Shall remit money received by him/her on behalf of the Association within 24 working hours.

- Shall perform all other duties as may be assigned to him by the President.
- Shall discharge all other duties that are necessary for the effective performance of his/her office in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.
- Shall not be a member of any ad-hoc committee to be set up by the association at any point in time.
- Shall ensure safe custody of the copies of the association's vouchers and receipts.

➤ PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER

- Shall in consultation with the executives be responsible for internal and external publicities of the activities of Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine. (NAPS-LASUCOM)
- Shall make public statements on behalf of the association as may be deemed fit by the executive.
- Shall make public enlightenment ventures including organization of public lectures and press conferences.
- Shall perform all other duties as may be assigned to him/her by the president.
- Shall be the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College of Medicine (NAPS-LASUCOM) students Librarian.
- Shall discharge all other duties that are necessary for the effective performance of his/her office in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.
- Shall be a member of the editorial team of the association.
- Shall be in charge of social media handle.

SOCIAL DIRECTOR

- Shall be responsible for planning and execution of social activities of the association.
- Shall be a member of association's week committee.

- Shall be the chairman of the social committee which shall be responsible for sociocultural activities of the Association.
- Shall arrange and conduct all excursion tours undertaken by the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine. (NAPS-LASUCOM)
- Shall use only official certified tickets of the Association for all social activities and any proceeds realized from any social activity must be submitted to the financial secretary within 24 hours.
- Shall perform all other duties as may be assigned to him by the president.
- Shall discharge all other duties that are necessary for the effective performance of his/her office in accordance with the provisions of constitution

SPORTS DIRECTOR

- Shall co-ordinate all sporting activities of the association.
- Shall keep all sport equipment's in the department laboratory.
- Shall organize at least one sporting event every semester.
- Shall ensure the full representation of the department in all sporting events organized by the faculty, university or related body.
- Shall head the sport committee.
- Shall be the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine (NAPS-LASUCOM) representative at all internal and external sporting activities and meetings.
- Shall discharge all other duties that are necessary for the effective performance of his/her office in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.

FUNCTIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE.

The executive shall:

- Carry out day to day running of the association.
- Give consistent updates of her activities to the members.
- The CEC shall seek all concessions, grants and authorizations from the university or outside the university and shall enter into agreement and conditions necessary for carrying on the business of the association, subject to the approval of the whole executives.
- Resignation or removal from office of a member of the CEC shall not absolve him/her from liabilities or irregularities committed by him/her during his/her tenure of office.
- No executive member shall be allowed to move or second a motion at a sitting of the congress.
- The CEC shall be the official representative of the association to any external occasion.
- Shall see to the successful hosting of the association's week (herein COINED as 'NAPS-LASUCOM WEEK').
- The associations' week (NAPS-LASUCOM WEEK) must be held for every tenure.
- All members of the CEC are to keep an appropriate record of their dealings with the association and on behalf of the association.

MEETINGS OF THE EXECUTIVES

- The executive council shall meet as often as necessary for the smooth and effective running of the Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, State University of Medical and Applied Science (NAPS-LASUCOM)
- Notice of the meetings shall be left at the Association's office of each central executive member at least forty-eight (48) hours before the commencement of the meeting.
- Not undermining (2) above, notifications for meeting(s) could be delivered either in print or digital form.
- The General Secretary shall be responsible for giving adequate notice of the Central Executive Council meetings to the members.
- The President shall be required to convene a meeting of the executive on a request signed by at least three members of the executive.

- The General Secretary shall be responsible for giving adequate notice of the Central Executive Council meetings to the members.
- The Central Executive Council of the Union shall meet statutorily every forth-night.
- . The president shall have no original vote. He will however be allowed to cast a vote in the case of a tie.

TENURE

- All the elected officers of the association shall be in office for a period of one academic year / session.
- No executive officer shall serve in the same office for more than two consecutive terms.
- All members of the executive and legislative council may be removed by 2/3 majority vote of all members present at a well constituted congress.

ARTICLE 7: COMMITTEES

THE STANDING COMMITTEE

There shall be for the union the following standing committee

The Press committee.

The Academic committee

The Social committee

The Financial committee

➤ PRESS COMMITTEE

This committee shall consist of five (5) members of the congress and the P.R.O as its chairman and it shall perform the following function.

- Create publicity and awareness with regards to the activities of the Association and other matters related to Physiotherapy profession.
- Organize public lecture, symposium, workshop, seminars, Exhibition and any other important activity. All in the interest of the Association.
- Perform any other function(s) that maybe assigned to him by the Executives.

➤ THE ACADEMIC COMMITTEE

This committee shall consist of five members of the congress and the secretary general as its chairman and shall perform the following function.

- Coordinate all the educational activities for the Association and.
- Perform any other function(s) as may be assigned to it by the Executives.

➤ THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

This committee shall consist of five members of the congress and

The director of socials of the Association as its chairman and shall perform the following function:

- Organize and expedite all the social activities of the Association that are not contrary to the regulations of Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine. (NAPS-LASUCOM)
- Perform any action as may be assigned to it by the Executives.

➤ THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

This committee consist of five(5) members of the congress and the financial secretary of the Association as its chairman and shall Perform the following functions.

- Be responsible for collecting money to the union.
- Perform any other functions as may be assigned to it by the Executives.

ARTICLE 8: ELECTION

ELECTION

SECTION A - COMPOSITION

There shall be an electoral commission, the members of which shall be chosen by the incumbent executive council to be ratified and approved by the NAPS Senate.

- The electoral commission shall be setup two weeks prior to any political exercise.
- The chairman shall be a financial member of the Association and shall be a final year student.
- Members should be financial members of the association and should not be members of the executive council.
- There shall be Six (6) members. A representative from each level

SECTION B - FUNCTIONS OF THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION

- The commission shall conduct all elections within the Association.
- Shall have the power to screen all candidates contesting for the Association's Executive offices and Senatorial seats.

They shall have the power to disqualify;

- Any candidate who violates the electoral law.
- Any candidate who has ever forfeited his seat in the senate.
- Any aspirant who had resigned an office before the expiration of his/her term of office for reasons unacceptable to the commission.
- They shall clear aspirants financially.
- The electoral commission shall publish the names of candidates, their referees and the offices the candidates are aspiring to occupy.
- They shall declare the election result not later than 24 hours after such election

SECTION C - COORDINATION OF ELECTION

- The electoral committee shall decide and publicly publish the date of executive elections.
- The electoral committee shall decide and publicly publish the week of senatorial elections and the dates for the election in each class.
- The electoral committee shall decide and publicly publish the price of forms for election into the executive and senatorial positions in the association.
- The price of forms for election into the executive and senatorial positions in the association shall be fixed for at least two(2) consecutive academic sessions (or two(2) calendar years) before it is subject to review.
- Each candidate shall be permitted to have a representative (who is a dues paying member of this association) to serve as witness and observe the vote counting process to ensure credibility.
- During election, all levels available during the time of election must be involved in the voting process.

SECTION D - VOTING STRUCTURE AND GUIDELINES

- All election of the officers shall be by voting
- A voter shall cast a vote for an aspirant
- Voting shall be by secret ballot system only.
- The electoral commission shall not favour any candidate or alter election results.
- An electoral officer shall lose his/her voting right on appointment.
- Withdrawal and submission of candidature shall be made to the electoral commission not later than 48 hours before the election.
- All campaigns should stop on or before 11:59 pm on the manifesto night, which is the day prior to the election. Any aspirant or his supporters found violating this Article of the constitution shall have his/her candidature nullified
- Election shall be held not later than two weeks to the university's end of second semester examinations
- The electoral commission is automatically disbanded after the publication of the final results.

BYE ELECTION

- In the case of a tie or a vacant position, a bye election shall be conducted by the senate house in not later than a period of two weeks.
- The price of forms and announcement of the bye election shall be made public by the senate.
- In the event that the post stills remains vacant after the two weeks period, the executive council shall send a nomination to the senate house for ratification.

SECTION E - CANDIDATURE

- An aspirant shall be a financial member of the Association who has never defaulted for any session.
- Members of the electoral commission cannot nominate candidates for election, neither can they serve as referees
- There shall be a nomination form to be obtained by the aspirant to various offices
- Any officer of the Association Shall have the right to stand for re-election or contest for any other post so far as such contestant has no proven record of official misconduct, abuse of office, or any such act that can tarnish the image of the Association.
- An aspirant shall possess a minimum academic requirement of 3.0 CGPA to contest for any political post.
- There shall be a nomination form to be obtained by the aspirant to various offices
- Any officer of the Association shall have the right to stand for re-election or contest for any office.

There shall be no campaign during the vote.

The candidate stands disqualified if:

- He /She violate any of the electoral procedures provided by the electoral commission.
- If a candidate attempt to use physical violence to intimidate his political opponents or electoral officials.

- Any aspirant or his supporter(s) found violating this article of the constitution shall have his candidature nullified.

ARTICLE 9 : FINANCIAL STRUCTURE OF THE ASSOCIATION

SECTION A: FISCAL YEAR

A fiscal year shall be one administration of the tenure of office of the Executive Council and Senate Representative Council.

SECTION B: INCOME SOURCES

The main sources of income for the Association shall include, but not limited to:

- Annual Dues.
- Fund Raising Activities.
- Donations.

SECTION C: BANKERS

- The Association's banker(s) shall be any Commercial Bank(s) approved by the Senate Representative Council or the Congress.
- All cheques and withdrawal forms shall be prepared by the Treasurer and signed by the President, the Treasurer and/or the Financial Secretary.
- The President, Financial Secretary and Treasurer shall be joint signatories to the Association's account(s).
- The Treasurer must be informed in writing within forty-eight (48) hours after a withdrawal is made by the President and the Financial Secretary.
- The outgoing signatories to the Association's account(s) shall ensure that the signatories are changed to the incoming signatories not later than two (2) weeks after handing over.

SECTION D: CLAIMS AND REQUISITIONS

- All individuals or Association officers shall, within seventy-two (72) hours of incurring any expenditure on behalf of the Association, inform the Financial Secretary and present a genuine proof of payment to the Financial Secretary for necessary refund.
- The Financial Secretary shall thereupon demand for duplicate copies of the receipt of the said expenditure for his records.

SECTION E: ANNUAL DUES

- There shall be charged on every member of NAPS LASUCOM an annual due of ONE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED NAIRA (₦1500.00) which is to be collected by nominated members of the Executive Council of Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine. (NAPS-LASUCOM)

SECTION F: FINANCIAL RECORDS

- The Financial Secretary shall keep detailed account of all Association receipts and ticket booklets (used or unused).
- The Financial Secretary shall keep copies of all expenditure analysis such that cross referencing will be easy.
- The Financial Secretary and Treasurer shall both keep proper financial record of the Association.

SECTION G: BUDGET

- Executive Council members shall submit their annual budget estimates to the SRC within two (2) months of their inauguration for possible approval and ratification.
- The complete budget shall include:
 - Source of funds for the fiscal year.
 - Expected expenditure for the fiscal year.

1. The Executive Council shall resolve all contradictions in the budget within three (3) weeks after submission of the budget.
2. No major programme(s) of financial implication shall be executed prior to the approval of its budget by the Executive Council.
3. Any officer who in his official capacity is guilty of any improper expenditure shall, for his misconduct to the extent of such improper expenditure and liability thereof arising, refund the Association in full.
4. Decisions concerning (v) above taken by the Executive Council shall be binding on any officer of the Association.
5. Approval of the Executive Council shall be obtained for any extra-budgetary expenses.

SECTION H: FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- The Executive Council shall be responsible for all disbursement of funds for expenditure to itself, Committees and Boards of the Association.
- The Treasurer shall, with the approval of the President, disburse funds to any member(s) of the Executive Council for the purpose of executing any proposed expenditure.
- The Executive Council shall keep all records of income and expenditure of the Association.
- In respect of any revenue yielding venture, the responsible official(s) shall submit details of such undertaking(s) to the Financial Secretary along with remittance of such funds into the Association's bank and shall obtain an Association receipt from the Treasurer for such funds remitted.

SECTION I: FINANCIAL CONTROL

- All funds received for and on behalf of the Association shall be paid into the Association's account by the Treasurer within one (1) week of receipt and the Treasurer shall keep a detailed account of not more than five thousand naira (₦7,500.00) at a time.
- Other Association officers shall within seventy-two (72) hours of coming in contact with the Association's funds pay such funds either in cash into the Association's bank account, in which case they obtain tellers which they must present to the Financial Secretary within the time limit stipulated.

- In either case, the official shall obtain Association receipt from the Financial Secretary for such funds remitted.
- Any disbursement exceeding two thousand naira (₦2,000.00) must be approved by the President, in conjunction with the Financial Secretary.
- The Treasurer may however approve disbursements not more than two thousand naira (₦2,000.00).
- The Association's statement of account duly authenticated by the Association's banker(s) shall be presented before the Executive Council for consideration.

ARTICLE 10: THE AMMENDMENT

AMMENDMENT

Section A:

- The NAPS-LASUCOM constitution shall be in full effect for at least 3years
- The senate shall create a constitution committee 3years after the constitution has been passed into law to check if the constitution is still sufficient for the operation of the association.
- The association shall have the power to amend its constitution. No amendments of the constitution shall be valid unless passed by a 2/3 majority of the entire member of the congress body present at a meeting called for what purpose and subsequently approved by a referendum of the association by simple majority vote.
- The resolution shall on adoption be sent to the constitution review committee which includes the president, vice presidents and general secretary before being sent to the staff adviser.

ARTICLE 11: OATH OF THE OFFICE

Every officer of the association shall take an oath of office as indicated in Appendix of this constitution. Accordingly all Oath shall be administered by the penultimate class representative.

OATH OF OFFICE.

- I.....do solemnly swear/affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine. (NAPS-LASUCOM), that as the chairman / secretary / president / member of the committee I will discharge my duties to the best of my ability ,faithful and in accordance with the provision of the constitution Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine (NAPS-LASUCOM), and rules guiding the committee and always in the best interest of the Solidarity, well-being and prosperity of Nigeria Association of Physiotherapy Students, Lagos State University College Of Medicine. (NAPS-LASUCOM)